Dr. Little,

The Movement for Chiropractic Quality and Integrity wishes to acknowledge the receipt of our invitation to the CCE Forum on April 27, 2013, but respectfully declines the invitation. It is clear to us that the CCE is merely following the recommendations of its USDE consultant and dotting the I's and crossing the T's in order to get re-recognition by the U.S. Secretary of Education while continuing to have complete disregard for the concerns and input provided by a large segment of the chiropractic profession. We will not continue to be a part of a one-sided conversation that has no meaningful intentions or solution-based dialogue. To date we have been active participants in all CCE sponsored "Stakeholders" meetings and have been present at CCE semi-annual meetings with no change in the status quo. Apparently the concerns of a great percentage of the profession are not sufficient to warrant the sincere attention and action of the CCE.

May we remind you at this time that the IFCO, FVS and MCQI collectively extended an invitation to begin a dialogue immediately after the December 2011 NACIQI hearing. That request to date has gone unmet.

Should the CCE wish to truly engage in a dialogue beyond comments restricted to three minutes and that is aimed at solving the current crisis in chiropractic education, we are willing and open to participate.
